

GLENN W. FALK
Professor of the Practice in Public Policy and Law
Trinity College, Hartford, Connecticut

EDUCATION

Harvard Law School. J.D. 1985.

Harvard Legal Aid Bureau, 1983-85. Executive Director, 1984-85.

Harvard College. A.B. History summa cum laude 1982. Phi Beta Kappa.

Trinity College. M.A. History with high honors 2007.

EMPLOYMENT

Trinity College. Professor of the Practice in Public Policy and Law, 2018-present; Adjunct Professor, Public Policy and Law, 2016-2018.

New Haven Legal Assistance Association, Inc. 1985-2018.

Criminal Unit, 1995-2018. Staff Attorney. Representation of indigent adult and juvenile defendants in Connecticut trial and appellate courts. Argued more than 100 appeals in Connecticut Supreme and Appellate Courts. CJA counsel in United States District Court and Second Circuit Court of Appeals. Supervision of law students from Yale, University of Connecticut and Quinnipiac law schools.

Housing Unit, 1985-1995. Staff Attorney. Managing Attorney, 1987-1995.

University of Connecticut School of Law. Adjunct professor, housing law course, Fall 1995.

AWARDS AND HONORS

ACADEMIC

Summer stipend and support, Institute for Constitutional History and the Stanford Constitutional Law Center, The Lochner Era, Interdisciplinary Summer Workshop, Stanford, California, July 2017.

Summer stipend, National Endowment for the Humanities, Westward Expansion and the Constitution in the Early American Republic, Summer Institute for College and University Teachers, University of Oklahoma, June 2016.

LEGAL

Selected for Connecticut Super Lawyers® list in the area of Appellate Law, 2013-2017. Selection process at http://www.superlawyers.com/connecticut/selection_details.html.

Connecticut Criminal Defense Lawyers Association Award of Merit, 2016.

PUBLICATION

“Housing Discrimination Law,” 14 Quinnipiac Law Review 4 (Winter 1994), 593.