Puerto Rican composer Dan Román has developed a compositional style integrating elements of the folkloric music from the Caribbean with the mechanics of minimalism and the aesthetics of postmodern art. His music has been performed in Puerto Rico, Europe, South America and throughout the United States, including performances at the 34th International Viola Congress, the 2005 Guitar Foundation of America Convention, and as part of the Hartford Commissions Concerts at Merkin Hall in New York. In addition, Dan Román has received commissions to write new pieces for the Cuarteto Latinoamericano, the Alturas Duo, the Schumann Ensemble, the New World Trio, The Irrelevants, the Ensamble de Guitarras de Chile, and others.
